PRESIDING JUDGE ERIC C. TAYLOR AMENDS ORDER TO EXTEND LAST-DAY DEADLINES FOR CRIMINAL TRIALS AND PRELIMINARY HEARINGS AS COVID INFECTIONS, HOSPITALIZATIONS SURGE IN LA COUNTY

Civil Division Prioritizing Virtual Mandatory Settlement Conferences to Facilitate Case Resolution

Presiding Judge Eric C. Taylor today extended last-day deadlines for Criminal trials, preliminary hearings and other Criminal matters to January 28, 2022 as the Omicron variant continues to infect LA County residents at unprecedented rates. The amended General Order, issued pursuant to the emergency powers granted to him by Chief Justice Tani G. Cantil-Sakauye under Government Code section 68115, will continue to reduce foot traffic in courthouses as hospitalizations and deaths continue to escalate this week and Omicron transmission causes record numbers of COVID cases throughout the county.

"With the troubling number of COVID hospitalizations increasing to more than 4,000 in LA County, the Court remains committed to prioritizing the health and safety of court users, justice partners, judicial officers and employees, while continuing to provide safe access to justice," Presiding Judge Taylor said. "Extending certain Criminal deadlines under this amended Order will help us to achieve this balance. Today's amended Order provides scheduling flexibility to judicial officers and reduces the number of attorneys, witnesses, jurors and others in our courthouses.

- (ii) Extends the time period provided in section 1382 of the Penal Code for the holding of a criminal trial by not more than 30 days, applicable only to cases in which the original or previously extended statutory deadline otherwise would expire from January 5, 2022 to January 28, 2022, inclusive.
